Session	1	2	3	4	VENUES
Friday	Global Surveillance	Security II	Body Cams II	NSA & Ethics	Pati Manning Auditorium - 95
Session 6 - 9:00-10:30	Saher Naumaan. A Faustian Bargain: The Search for Security via Surveillance in the Apple-FBI Case	Dennis Pauschinger. Smart, Secure, Resilient: Security and Surveillance at the 2014 World Cup in Rio de Janeiro and beyond	Bryce Newell. Policing as (Monitored) Performance: Police Body Cameras, Citizen Video, and New Visibility	Felicity Ruby. The Five Eyes Alliance after Snowden	UB Classrooms 50, 50, 80, 80 people
	Stefanie Felsberger and Lina Attalah. Escape and Control: shifting strategies of dissent and surveillance in Egypt	Pete Fussey and Mark Maguire. Sensing Evil: Counterterrorism, Techno-science and the Cultural Reproduction of Security	Bryce Newell and Tjerk Timan. Police-Worn Body Cameras: Comparing empirical studies in the Netherlands and United States	Andrew Adams, Kiyoshi Murata, Yasunori Fukuta, Yohko Orito and Ana Maria Lara Palma. Would You Do What Snowden Did? An International Study of University Students' Reactions to Snowden's Actions and Revelations	Pati Manning. Plató - 50 people
	Ilkin Mehrabov. The Uncanny Relationship of Mediatization and Surveillance in Developing Countries	Johann Cas. Citizens' perceptions on surveillance, privacy and security - what differences debates make	Emmeline Taylor. What do Detainees Think of Police Body-Worn Video Cameras?	Giampaolo Ghilardi and Roberto Setola. Philosophy, epistemology and ethics of surveillance	UB Aula 302 - 52 people
coffee break					UB Auditorium - 235 people
	Intelligence	Trust and Surveillance IV	Art	Privacy II	Pati Manning. Aula I & II- 40 people
Session 7 - 11:00-13:00	Laurent Bonelli. Collecting traces, building narratives : Intelligence services and their uses of technologies	Alana Saulnier. The surveilled subject and relational models of procedural justice	Renata Barboza Carvalho and Wilton Azevedo. Panoptic Art: surveillance under the perspective of the artists	Mike Zajko. Internet service providers as privacy custodians
	Elspeth Guild and Didier Bigo Sciences Po. 5eyes+ under scrutiny: open season on the personal data of the foreigner?	Minas Samatas. Spying Between Citizens and Allies in the Age of Insecurity: 'Glocal Coveillance' Beyond Any Trust	Lachlan Urquhart. Regulation by Design for Ambient Domestic Computing: Lessons from Human Computer Interaction	Kevin Macnish. Privacy: a matter of control or access, and why it matters
	Didier Bigo and Elspeth Guild. 5eyes+ under scrutiny : the visibilisation of the transnational flows of sensitive information by the guild of the transatlantic SIGINT agencies and their private partners.	Kristene Unsworth. Trust and surveillance: Maintaining the civil society	David Behar. Let's make and play PSS – Towards community involvement and participation	Anouk Mols. "An ounce of privacy" - Comparing privacy attitudes in the United Kingdom and the Netherlands
	Félix Tréguer French Intelligence Reform: Legalising large-scale surveillance in a post-Snowden world	Ola Svenonius, Fredrika Björklund and Pawel Waszkiewicz. The "Trust Effect" in Comparative Surveillance Studies: The Like Fish in Water Survey	Laurel Ahnert and Jason Derby. Seeing through the 3rdi: Surveillant art and material visions of resistance.	Midori Ogasawara. Bodies as Risky Resources: Japan's colonial ID system and its implication today
Session 8 13:00-14:00	Education II	Trust and Surveillance III	Art and Film	Drones II
	Karen Louise Smith. Openness versus Privacy? Negotiating Value Conflicts for Open Source Inspired Privacy Education	Thordis Sveinsdottir. Can trust in surveillance technologies be enhanced through certification? Lessons from the CRISP project.	Peter Marks. 'The Brave New World of Datamacy: Blurring Data and Intimacy in Spike Jonze's Her'	Leandro Huerto. Drone Seduction
	Jane Bailey. From "zero tolerance" to "safe and accepting": Surveillance and equality implications of educational policy related to "cyberbullying"	Donatella Selva and Emiliana De Blasio. Digital surveillance between power and accountability	Fareed Ben-Youssef. Drones over the Frontier: The Panopticon Border in Recent US-Mexico Border Films	Francisco Klauser. Spatialities of surveillance
Lunch & Change buildings	Politics III	Policing II	Mobility	Smart Technologies
Session 3 - 15:00-16:00	Adam Molnar and Erik Zouave. Computer Network Exploitation, Pluralized Surveillance, and Democratic Governance	Raphael Schlembach. Covert policing and the infiltration of protest groups in Britain	Harrison Smith. From Lifestyles to Locations: Situating mobile analytics within the political economy of consumer surveillance	Andelka M. Phillips, I. S. Mian, J. Charbonneau. Living in a Panopticon City: the Biological-Geographic-Economic-Social-Behavioural-Physical complex -- people and places under dynamic surveillance
	Adrian Haase and Emma Peters. Ubiquitous computing – increasing engagement of private companies in governmental surveillance	Karin Svedberg Helgesson and Ulrika Mörth. Good Cops, Bad Citizens and the Quest for Security: Lawyers as agents of the state in anti-money laundering	George Filip and Xiaolin Meng. "I would trust the system more, but my car less." Trust, Privacy and Surveillance in the age of the Driverless Car.	Andreas Baur Ahrens and Marco Krüger. Smart Security at Airports – Smart for Whom?
cofee break	Big Data	CCTV	Social Media I	Security I
Session 5 - 16:30-18:30	Anders Albrechtslund and Lise Lotte Beck Andersen. Performing and negotiating family tracking	Kevin Biderman. Title: Visual Surveillance in the City of London (1994 – Present day): Discipline, control and the materiality of digital visual media	Greg Elmer. The Social Media Account as Interface: Platform, Infrastructure & Financial Value	Roman Pauli, Tim Lukas and Peter Imbusch. "It's part of the game" – Institutional Rhetorics in Legitimizing Surveillance
	Anna Franczak. Attitudes Towards Surveillance in Everyday Life. Google Big Data in Cross National Perspective.	Caitlin Overington. Unsettling the city: critically examining the effect of CCTV beyond order	Justine Gangneux. Social Media and Scrutiny: Young adults' perceptions and practices	Matthias Schulze. The Cyber-War-Surveillance Assemblage
	David Lyon. Big Data Surveillance: What's 'new'?	Ozge Girgin. Usage of Surveillance Cameras at home and Culture of Surveillance	Peter Holland, Brian K Cooper and Rob Hecker. Use of Social Media at Work: A New Form of Employee Voice?	Thomas Behrndt. Data-Driven Security: Politics and Objectivity
	Priscilla Regan. Big Data in the Education Arena: 21st Century Student Sorting and Tracking	Pawel Waszkiewicz, Fredrika Björklund and Ola Svenonius. Gated Communities: A Statistical Scrutiny of Existing Hypotheses	Ryan Tippet. Constitutive Surveillance and Social Media	Monica Correia. Management of Security through Surveillance in Portugal: the Data Protection Authority's perspective
Evening 19:00-21:00	Keynote by Oscar Gandy, Intro D. Lyon				